

The Story Behind the Original Pleiadian Wisdom Oracle Cards

Pia Orleane, Ph.D. & Cullen Baird Smith

These oracle cards are infused and encoded with Pleiadian wisdom, stardust, light, and love! The Pleiadian Evolutionary System in these cards brings light, shining new wisdom into the dark—a rare gift for the transformation of our human consciousness. We have chosen the imagery motifs of heart, light, spirals, and waves to represent the energy and essence of what the Pleiadians wish to share.

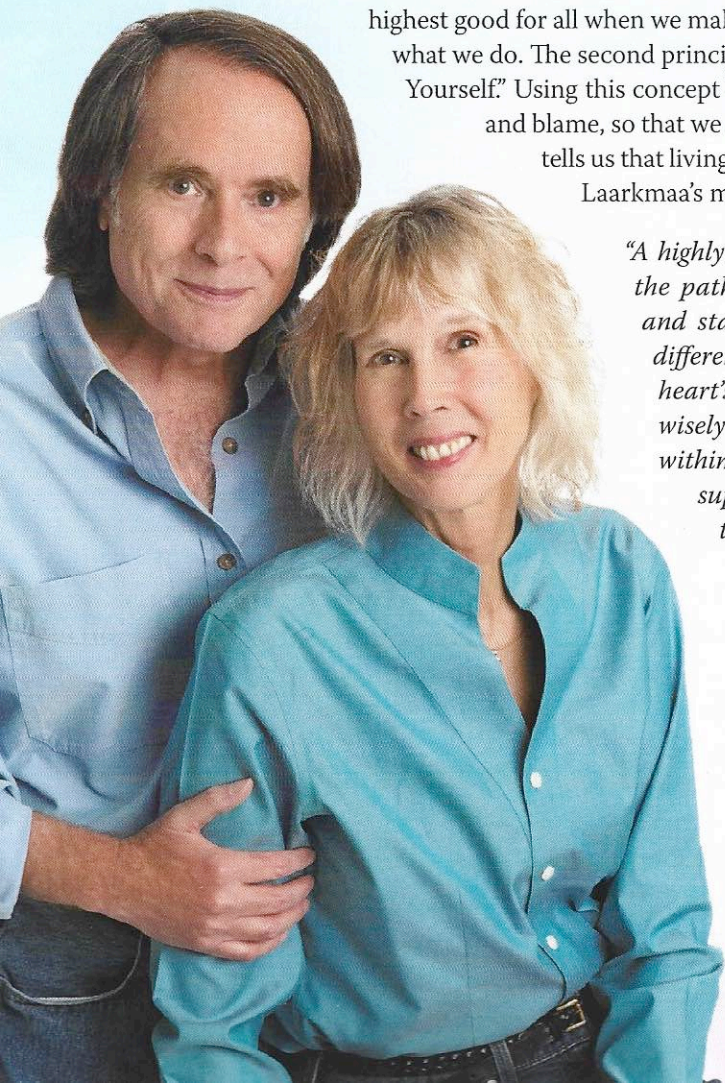

The quotes used in these cards come directly from Laarkmaa, a group of loving, gentle, and wise Pleiadians whose greatest purpose is to help humanity awaken and evolve. We feel that the purpose of an oracle card deck is for guidance and inspiration. Guidance is all about making good choices, so you will find a continual reference to the power of choice throughout this deck.

The two most important principles that the Pleiadians instill into these cards are the concepts of Ahimsa and In Lak'ech. Ahimsa is a Sanskrit term that simply means “Do No Harm.” Laarkmaa wants us to consider the highest good for all when we make choices, incorporating the energy of Ahimsa into what we think and what we do. The second principle is the Mayan term In Lak'ech, which simply means, “I Am Another Yourself.” Using this concept helps us to open our hearts to others, releasing judgment, separation, and blame, so that we can achieve a more whole experience of harmony and unity. Laarkmaa tells us that living in this way helps us to evolve into fully functional humans. We include Laarkmaa’s message about this here:

“A highly functioning human being is one who has consciously chosen the path to evolution. Such a person has released all judgment and stays true to her or his own heart. This person can discern differences and make choices that resonate with intuition and the heart’s wisdom. Always living in the present moment, this person wisely uses uncomfortable emotions as signals to change something within themselves. An evolving person trusts that they are always supported by the universe and makes conscious choices, trusting that resolution will be for the best and highest good for all. They use discernment to choose thoughts and actions that are always in alignment with harmony, peace, unity, kindness, and love. One very brief thought encompasses all of the above elements: a fully functional person is one who lives his or her life completely in the arms of unconditional love. Every thought, every action, every choice, every belief—all come from unconditional love.”

The wisdom found in these cards helps you to become as fully functioning as possible as you continue on your evolutionary journey. Finding your answers and making your choices in the spirit of In Lak'ech and Ahimsa means that you take a moment to integrate the energy around you before responding in any situation. Sitting quietly as you draw on the Pleiadian wisdom of this deck allows you to do that. Once a card has offered guidance, you can decide how to proceed, responding with strength and compassion for the highest good for all, knowing that what you think, say, or do will impact all others. The wisdom and stardust in these cards support your evolutionary journey!

In the cosmos, all energy spirals in waves; it is not linear or static. The Pleiadians want you to understand how energy works in the universe to align yourself more harmoniously with others and begin to live in a more balanced way, benefiting all life. Cosmic energy moves in cycles of thirteen Universal energies, from initiation to completion and integration, spiraling and building in an all-inclusive and harmonious way.

These cards not only provide specific guidance through the quotes themselves on the cards (as explained in detail in the Guidebook), but they also encompass the Universal energy of the thirteen Universal numbers, which are explained in the How To Use section of the Guidebook.

Because the Pleiadians are all about love, the heart images that represent love are depicted on many of these cards. Laarkmaa repeats important phrases and images to help you to instill into your heart everything you need to know!

There are six categories of wisdom; each category contains thirteen quotes that can help to answer the most commonly asked questions by all who are seeking guidance in their lives:

Nature • Relationship • Healing
Purpose • Evolution • Manifestation

Everything in this deck is related to energy and focused specifically on the energy of flow, so that you flow towards higher consciousness through each question asked. However, these cards can be used and integrated in any order, according to the current issue at hand. There is no hierarchy in the thirteen numbers, but each one carries an energetic message to be used synchronistically to answer your question.

There is a simple formula we used to incorporate the energies into this card deck, and the energy of each number used is

By using this deck, you can simplify and navigate your life with more ease and flow.

Barbara Hand Clow, author of The Pleiadian Agenda, says this about Laarkmaa's Original Pleiadian Wisdom Oracle Cards:

This is the Pleiadian oracle I've awaited all my life! It is crystal clear, direct, and deeply meaningful. It comes directly from the Pleiadian heart. As Laarkmaa says, it helps us become fully functional, a person who chooses to evolve and live in the heart in fusion with cosmic wisdom. It exudes love while being totally useful, a must-have oracle for all seekers of Pleiadian consciousness.
